*World Business Lenders (WBL) does not make loans in NV, ND, SD, HI, WV and VT. All loans in CA are made by WBL California, a WBL subsidiary and licensed California Finance Lender and Broker (LIC. #60DBO-41841); referrals in such cases will be accepted only from brokers licensed under the California Financing Law or the California Bureau of Real Estate. Given interest rate caps, special lending rules or special rules relating to real estate collateral, certain programs may not be available in some states. All information provided in this document is subject to modification by WBL based upon specific loan characteristics and WBL reserves the right to temporarily or permanently change all guidelines, rates and other criteria from time to time in its sole discretion without prior notice.
